

I am tired of having my news over the airways controlled by owners. Sinclair doesn't seem to have a problem thumbing its nose at the FCC and the general public by using their airways for partisan politics. When the Ronald Reagan story was released, I had to go to cable to see the story because the major TV stations made a decision to block the general public from view this TV drama that was not a documentary. Please pay attention to some of these abuses